WOULD CAUSE SEVERE PANIC

Oliver H. Carson of Indianapolis Attacks Bank Guaranty Plan in Speech Last Night.

TALKS ON OPTION QUESTION

Says People Must Elect Favorable Candidates to Hold Ground They Have Gained.

Oliver H. Carson, an attorney of Indianapolis, who spoke last night at the Republican headquarters, delivered one of the best campaign addresses heard in this city this year. He discussed the principal issues of the campaign, both State and national in such a clear and comprehensive way that a child could understand him.

Mr. Carson is a prominent attorney of Indianapolis, and a strong temperance advocate. He made his first address here last March when he spoke at the Men's meeting held at the United Presbyterian church. He was good in his first address, but was better last night and even surprised his most ardent admirers. He has a forceful personality to back up his oratorical ability, which makes him an entertaining as well as a convincing speaker.

Mr. Carson talked at some length upon the county local option issue and showed how necessary it was for the people to elect representatives, senators and a governor that would see that the ground already gained would not be lost. Mr. Carson talked at some length upon the tariff question and upon the guarantee of bank deposits. He showed that Mr. Bryan's last issue would throw the country into a panic a short time after the law was enacted.

At several different times during the speech Mr. Carson referred to Mr. Watson and every mention of his name brought forth rounds of applause from the audience.

A VERY STRANGE DISEASE

Pawpawitis Has Shelby County in its Grasp—Some Cases Here.

A metropolitan paper, referring to the "pawpawitis" which has manifested itself in Shelby county, says: "Word comes from Shelbyville that a strange disease has broken out there. It is called pawpaw poisoning. First, you eat a pawpaw and then in a few hours your face swells up as big as a pumpkin. You suffer horribly for a while until the symptoms disappear. After that you feel better than ever. Physicians generally believe that if there were more pawpaws there would be more cases of pawpawitis recorded."

COTERIE HEARS ORIGINAL STORY

Mrs. Mary Holmes Reads Minature Masterpiece Before Literary Society.

THE PRESENT AND THE DREAM

Mrs. Mary Holmes very pleasantly entertained the Coterie on Monday afternoon with an original story, entitled, "Which: A Princess of the Olden Time or a Working Girl of Today?"

A stenographer, whose sighs for the life of a princess were overheard by her fairy godmother, was transported to the fourteenth century, where she discovered herself to be Princess Alda de Hilbert, whose hand was promised to her cousin Frederic, while her heart had already flown to Osric the Dane. A joust in which Osric was defeated decided her fate. But the fairy godmother appeared in time to save her, and she was glad enough to wake up in her little hall-bedroom to find it all a dream. She almost hugged the gas stove and kissed the electric light bulb in her joy, and decided to marry her lover, a poor young man who resembled Osric, even if they had to live in a tiny flat, and do without solid silver and real-for-sure china.

The next meeting of the Coterie, which from whispers overheard promises to be a "good un" will be with Mrs. Bigham.

WILL EDUCATE A JAPANESE GIRL

Local People Organize Missionary Society to Pay Expenses Here of Foreign Girl.

ISHIHARA WILL ENTERTAIN

So interested are they in the Japanese girl, Kiku Ishihara, who spent Sunday here, several members of the Epworth League of St. Paul's M. E. church have organized a missionary society to help in the work of carrying the Christian religion into the land of flowers. They will pay all the expenses of a Japanese girl's education in the schools of the United States. When Miss Ishihara returns to her native land next June she will select a girl who is to receive the benefit of the education in this country. As soon as the missionary society is fully organized Miss Ishihara will return here and give a Japanese tea for the society, at which a mock Japanese wedding will be the interesting part on the program.

PROHIBITIONISTS WILL BE FOR J. O. HALL

Republican Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney Will Defeat the Former Saloon Keeper.

DEMOCRATS ARE IN A HOLE

Some Advised Taking Cheney Off the Ticket but the Brewery Die Was Cast.

The Democrats have come to the sad realization of a gross mistake in nominating John C. Cheney to the office of prosecuting attorney for Rush and Shelby counties. It developed that Cheney is a former saloon keeper and was born to the nomination through brewery influence. There was talk of removing Cheney from the ticket but the exposure came too late for such a move.

As the Prohibitionists have no candidate for the office the several hundred in Rush and an equal number in Shelby county, will rally around J. Oscar Hall, rather than vote for a man who was formerly in the saloon business and whose sentiments are still with that element.

The Shelbyville Republican has this to say on the situation:

"The office of prosecuting attorney is of great importance to the people generally. Especially is this true of the citizen who obeys the law and desires to see the law obeyed by others.

"What benefit may be derived from a law enacted for the protection of the people if a careless or indifferent prosecuting attorney is depended upon to enforce it? For instance, of what use is it to enact or invoke laws for the control of the liquor traffic, or for the elimination of dens of vice, if the man elected to the office of prosecuting attorney is indifferent as to the enforcement of such laws, or who by association and environment has come to look upon these laws as unnecessarily stringent, and further believes that it is not a very serious matter if they are violated?"

"The citizens of Shelby county want a man who will enforce the law without fear or favor, to occupy the office of prosecutor. It is for them to judge in November which of the two candidates of the leading parties is best fitted to discharge the duties of the office.

"The opposing candidates are J. Oscar Hall, named by the Republicans, and John C. Cheney, named by the Democrats. It is the duty of every voter to investigate the record of each of these men and determine which, by past performance, environment and ability is best equipped to stand guard over Shelby county homes and the lives and liberties of her people."

SECOND SYNOD NOW IN SESSION

Many Prominent Church Workers, Representing Six States, are at This Meeting.

WILL LAST THREE DAYS.

An Interesting Program is Arranged For Each Session During the Meeting.

The fifty-first annual meeting of the Second Synod began today in the United Presbyterian church of this city. The meeting was called to order at three o'clock and a sermon was delivered by the retiring Moderator. Permanent organization for this session was perfected. J. P. Cowan of Indianapolis delivered an address on "The Church vs. the Saloon" which was very interesting and to the point. After the sermon some business was attended to and adjournment followed. The meeting will continue for three days.

The meeting will open tonight at 7:30 o'clock with a devotional service. After a short business session an address will be given by Dr. C. R. Watson on "Christ's Leadership." A conference on "Methods of Work," conducted by Dr. Watson will follow and also discussion by Rev. W. W. McCall, I. M. Knife and others.

Wednesday morning's session will be opened by a devotional service and address on "Home Missions," "Church Extension," "Education," and "Sunday School Work" by many prominent men. After short discussion and business the meeting will adjourn until the afternoon.

The Indiana Presbytery met in the parlors of the United Presbyterian church last night to transact business. The meeting was for the purpose of passing a revision of the present rules which were prepared by a special committee.

BOB KELLY MAKES THEM TAKE WATER

After a Visit Here Returns to Shelbyville and Runs Betting Democrats to the Woods.

CREATED A FURORE THERE

Says the Shelbyville News: When Robert Kelley returned from Rushville Monday he was flushed with Watson money and posted several bets in the Ray Hotel, none of which Monday evening were taken. The board shows bets as follows registered without takers:

$100 to $100 Watson will be elected.

$200 to $200 Watson will be elected.

$100 to $100 Taft and Watson will be elected.

Kelley created furore among the Democrats when, in a manner that ordinarily would have been regarded an act of desperation, he ordered his wages posted. Runners were sent out for takers but efforts Monday evening were unsuccessful. The failure was not without its effect and many of the timorous Democrats read all kinds of dire omens between the betting lines.

Several who posted bets previous to Monday were made to "take water" when takers were produced.

MANY VETERANS WILL COME

Annual Reunion of Fifth Cavalry Begins Tomorrow.

Members of the Fifth Indiana Cavalry will come tomorrow to attend the annual reunion which will be held here on Wednesday and Thursday. Captain John K. Gowdy, I. L. Clifford and John Hendricks have arranged a good program for the visitors. The public is invited to attend the camp fire which will be held in the assembly room of the court house Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

WILL SHOOT FOR THE VASE TROPHY

Local Marksmen to Begin Spirited Contest at Gun Club Grounds Tomorrow.

THE TIME HAS BEEN CHANGED

The shooting for the vase trophy to be given to the best marksman in the local gun club will begin tomorrow at the club grounds at 2 o'clock. The shoots have been started at 3 o'clock, but owing to the shortness of the days, the time has been changed to 2 o'clock. Considerable interest is manifested in the outcome of the contest for the vase. It is a beautiful trophy and one which would make any marksman proud that he was a member of the Rushville Gun club. Since the successful outcome of the tournament last week the local gun club has become known all over this State, and is not an unheard of organization in several surrounding States. While the successful outcome of the tournament is due to the united support of all the members, J. F. Freeman deserves much credit for engineering the affair so successfully. His experience in managing similar affairs was a potent factor in the success of the tournament.

SERIOUS CHARGES ARE DISMISSED

Cases Against Benjamin F. Saunders Are Nollied in Squire Kratzer's Court.

FAMILY IS NOW RE-UNITED

The case against Benjamin F. Saunders for drawing a razor on his wife and for deserting her was nollied in Squire Kratzer's court this morning. The case has attracted considerable attention. It will be remembered that several weeks ago Saunders went to the home of his father-in-law, where his wife was making her home. He went to see the baby which had been born in his absence. According to the stories told then, he had been refused admittance to the house and had drawn a razor on his wife. Charges were filed by Mrs. Saunders, and later the charge of desertion was also placed against Saunders. In the meantime love for the child got the better of the parents, their differences settled and they are now living together a happy family.

JOE AND MARY JOIN THE FORCE

Southern Bloodhounds Coming and Will be Given a Try-out Sunday Afternoon.

THE INSTRUCTIONS ARE SENT

On Account of Southern "Breeding," to Start Dogs on Trail, They Say "Negro Gone."

Policeman Pea received word today from P. W. Phipps, a deputy sheriff of Chatanooga, Tenn., that the bloodhounds purchased recently would be shipped Friday and will arrive here Saturday. They will probably be given a try-out Sunday afternoon.

Joe and Mary are the names of the new additions to the Rushville police force and full directions for using the dogs came in the letter today. Mr. Phipps suggested that for the first few days the dogs be given short runs, until they get used to Policeman Pea and until he gets used to them. Twenty or thirty minute runs are said to be sufficient for a beginning.

When given a trial a man is sent on ahead with a good start and he climbs a tree so that the hounds cannot get at him when they come up. Mr. Phipps said all that was necessary to say to Joe and Mary, when starting on a trail, was to point to the ground and say "negro gone." (The dogs were trained and brought up in a southern environment.) Or to hiss and point to the ground starts the dogs off on a trail.

It is not necessary to give the dogs a severe test, says Mr. Phipps, as a thief usually goes direct home, along a route seldom used. The meat for the dogs is table scraps, and wheat or corn bread. They must not be fed raw meat but once a week and they must be kept in a clean, dry place.

Officer Pea has had a deal of experience in handling dogs and will know how to get the best possible out of the bloodhounds. At an expense of nearly twenty dollars he has erected a palatial dog domicile. He will solicit business from all the adjoining cities and towns and will come at any hour of the day or night on receipt of a telephone call.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from a long secret nostrum of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny. Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, "correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

TO ANNEX KOREA

This May Be the Next Step of Nippon Government.

Seoul, Oct. 13.—It has just been learned that twenty-two members of the "Ichinhol," the pro-Japanese organization of Korea, were killed by Japanese gendarmes at Choldo a few days ago. The affair has been kept quiet, but has occasioned much uneasiness because it might be considered as a ruthless slaughter of unoffending Koreans by the Japanese soldiers and calculated to confirm previous reports of unnecessary cruelty practiced by the Japanese in Korea. The matter has been reported by Marquis Ito, resident general of Korea, who is now in Tokio.

Advices from Tokio state that Marquis Ito has held conferences with Premier Katsura and Viscount Terachi, minister of war, and it is understood that a cabinet council will be called to decide upon the future action to be taken. In consequence of these conferences the report is being widely circulated that the Japanese government has decided to immediately annex Korea.

The explanation advanced of the killing of the members of the "Ichinhol" shows that forty "Ichinhol" were marching in a body to visit a shrine when the Japanese gendarmes met them and, mistaking them for a band of insurgents, immediately attacked the party, killing twenty-two.

RUSSIA SCORES ONE ON ENGLAND

The Czar's Representative Has His Own Way.

REAL DIPLOMATIC TRIUMPH

M. Isvolsky, Russian Foreign Minister, Has Succeeded in Impressing Upon Sir Edward Grey, British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, the Necessity That Not Only Should a Conference of the Powers Be Called to Consider the Balkan Question, but That Other Questions Should Be Considered.

London, Oct. 13.—M. Isvolsky, the Russian foreign minister, has succeeded in impressing upon Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary for foreign affairs, the necessity that not only should a conference of the powers be held to settle the crisis in the near East, but that this conference should take under advisement other questions besides those involved in the annexation by Austria of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the declaration of Bulgarian independence.

This change of front on the part of Great Britain, which has caused great surprise, was announced by the foreign office at the conclusion of a long conference between Sir Edward Grey and M. Isvolsky, after a meeting of the cabinet, at which Sir Edward set forth the position he had taken and explained the views of the Russian foreign minister. Sir Edward's secretary in making the announcement, said:

"It may be affirmed with certainty that both ministers concur in the necessity for a conference and that the four powers at the foreign office, following as they do on the Franco-Russian negotiations on the same subject, have smoothed away some of the difficulties which were in the way. It is now regarded as probable that the developments in the near East also necessitate the scope of the questions to be discussed at the conference."

Further than this nothing could be ascertained officially as to the questions M. Isvolsky desires to include. In fact, it is doubtful if it has been decided what shall be taken up in addition to the two actions which brought about the crisis, for it was intimated that the four powers at the British foreign office have not yet been concluded and may continue for several days.

It is doubted whether Russia is anxious to reopen the Dardanelles for the present, for if this is done it must be for all nations, and Russia is not likely to desire that while her fleet is so weak. Besides, other treaties in addition to the treaty of Berlin would be involved.

The only point on her previous stand Great Britain is continuing to insist upon apparently is that no modification of a treaty can be permitted without the consent of all parties to that treaty, and at her proposal the powers have instructed their ambassadors at Constantinople to reaffirm this principle. What end can be served by this is not stated by the foreign office, but it can hardly be expected that either Bulgaria or Austria-Hungary will consent to restore the legal status in Bulgaria and Bosnia and Herzegovina before the questions of independence and annexation are considered, as the powers have decided must be done with respect to the island of Crete.

THROATY YOUNG PRINCES

Hot-Headed Serbs May Yet Light the Torch of War.

Belgrade, Oct. 13.—The inflammatory speeches of Crown Prince George of Serbia, who is inciting the people to war while his father, King Peter, has observed an attitude of caution, causes uneasiness in official circles in Belgrade. There is less fear of war than of a dynastic crisis and an attempt to place the crown prince on the throne. The Serbian premier has tried vainly to suppress the crown prince, for it is feared that he may lead bands of volunteers against Bosnia, or do something equally rash.

It is said in political circles that Great Britain and France have promised Serbia their moral support if she maintains a peaceful course, and have suggested also that Serbia might be given the Sanjak of Novi Pazar, with Turkey's consent.

Prince Peter of Montenegro, son of the reigning prince, Nicholas I., has telegraphed to Crown Prince George of Serbia, saying: "I am delighted at the spirited and very practical words you have spoken to an equally enthusiastic gathering of our dear brethren. I cordially embrace you, dear cousin, and pray God we soon may meet on the crimson field."

Prince George has sent the following message in reply: "Your kind words have deeply touched me. Ever true to the ideals of our beloved Serbian nationality, I am rejoiced beyond measure at the opportunity given me to participate even in a modest way in the enthusiastic and united expression of patriotic feeling of our dear brethren."

HEIRESS KIDNAPPED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Chicago Police Baffled by Bold Abductors.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—In broad daylight, almost within sight of a police station, Margaret Frances Mitchell, eight years old, said to be an heiress to a fortune of $250,000, was kidnapped here, and the authorities have instituted a country-wide search for the child. While on the street with her grandmother, the little girl was snatched by one of three men in an automobile, and after the grandmother, Mrs. Caroline F. Mitchell, was knocked down, was taken away. Since then no trace of the child has been found, although the police are working on a clue that she was taken immediately out of the city, probably to Spain, N. C.

The kidnapping is said to be the climax of prolonged struggle for the possession of the child. She has been living with her father, Robert Mitchell, at 4339 St. Lawrence avenue, while the mother, Mrs. Margaret B. Mitchell, has lived separately. The fortune was left to the girl by her mother's father. The child is also said to be a relative of Miss Minnie Mitchell, who six years ago was murdered by William Bartholomew.

According to the story told to the police by the grandmother, threats of kidnapping previously had been made, and because of this she always accompanied the girl to and from school. She was unable to fully describe any of the men in the automobile, but has urged the police to search at Spain, where, it is said, the mother recently resided.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 13.—That she was sold for $100 and forced by her father to marry a man she did not love was the statement made by seventeen-year-old Julia Madelin, who last Saturday shot and killed Tony Madelin, to whom she was married four months ago. The girl said she had no regret for her act.

OHIO TOWNS CHEER TAFT

The Nominee Given Great Greeting in Home State.

ENTHUSIASM WAS SEDATE

While There Was Not the Same Vim and Snap to the Enthusiasm Which Greeted the Candidate in Ohio as Marked That Which Attended His Appearance in Some Portions of the West, What He Said Was Well Applauded by the Thousands That Turned Out to Hear Him as He Journeyed From Cincinnati to Akron.

Akron, O., Oct. 13.—Seventeen Ohio towns heard and saw William H. Taft Monday. He talked from Cincinnati to Akron, through a portion of the state conceded to have been a Foraker stronghold, with a portion of the territory Democratic. While there was not the same vim and snap to the enthusiasm which the candidate got in some portions of the West, he was listened to by large crowds, numbering thousands in many places, and what he said was well applauded and many cheers were proposed and executed with a will. In his Zanesville speech Mr. Taft went after both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Gompers.

Music Hall was crowded to its capacity to hear Judge Taft last night. The candidate did not refer to his speech in this city three years ago, when he denounced the leadership of George B. Cox. He said before making his speech that there was no reason why he should take up that matter, as the state had by its own action divorced the discussion of national and municipal political questions, and the Cox issue of that time was in no way connected with the national issues of today.

TALKS TO STUDENTS

Bryan Follows Hughes at University of Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—In an address at the state university W. J. Bryan attacked the arguments of Governor Hughes of New York in defense of the Republican platform, dwelling on the differences between the two platforms relating to publicity of campaign contributions, and discussed the propriety of President Roosevelt supporting Mr. Taft. Delivered forcibly and in Mr. Bryan's best style, his speech was repeatedly cheered by the university students. In attacking the position of the Republicans in the tariff situation, he delivered epigrams which kept the students cheering for minutes. During the speech he took a vote of the students who were for and against publicity of campaign funds, and those who were for and against election of senators by a direct vote. The principal part of the speech of the candidate was occupied by an answer to the arguments of Hughes, who spoke to university students a short time ago.

Three Trains Come Together.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Three trains were wrecked in the New York Central yards near the Black Rock station last night. A yard engine with a string of cars attached, a freight train coming into the city, and Michigan Central passenger train No. 3, were in the mix-up, which resulted in the fatal injury of only one man. John W. Kinney, engineer of the switch engine, was caught between the tender and the boiler and probably fatally injured. None of the passengers was hurt.

Marrin, as "Judge Stone," was convicted in Philadelphia some years ago for fraud in the famous Storey cotton case.

DETROIT NOW IN IT

The Tigers Take One in the Championship Contest.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Detroit became a real contender for the world's baseball championship yesterday afternoon when it defeated Chicago in decisive fashion, 3 to 2.

Manager Jennings achieved this result with a change in his line-up. Downs was put on the bench and the efficient Schaefer, who is at home in almost any position, was shifted from third to second base, Coughlin occupying the third sack. This shake-up, however, cannot be said to have had any material effect in winning the game, for neither Schaefer nor Coughlin got a hit, while Coughlin bungled one of his two chances.

Counting the world's series of last year, this victory was the first Detroit has scored in eight contests for the highest prize in the baseball world. Mullin, elected by Manager Jennings to pitch for Detroit, was steady throughout the game, holding Chicago to seven scattered hits and passing only one man. Pfeister's left-handed shoots for the most part failed to puzzle the Michigan batsmen. Besides issuing three passes, he was hit safely thirteen times, two of the cluster being doubles and six of them occurring in one inning. It was this inning—the sixth—which gave the game to Detroit.

The gray-clad Tigers, two runs behind Chicago when the inning opened, came across the plate in a procession. The crowd, with the exception of a minority from Detroit which enjoyed the proceedings hugely, pleaded with vociferous unanimity for the retirement of Pfeister. Manager Chance, who failed to show any traces of embarrassment or displeasure at the way in which Detroit came up from behind and went ahead, smiled cheerfully and ignored the request.

Tyrus Cobb, idol of the Detroit enthusiasts, whose playing was a great disappointment a year ago, came into his own. He batted like the natural hitter he is and ran bases like a flash. His batting average for the day was .800. Out of five times up he hit safely four times. Despite the fact that the sun shone brightly and the temperature was higher than Sunday, only 14,543 paid admissions were registered at the various turnstiles, netting total receipts of $22,727.

Hundreds of people who suffer from backache, rheumatism, lame back, lumbago and similar symptoms of kidney trouble. Pineules for the Kidneys, act directly on the kidneys, bringing quick relief to backache and other symptoms of kidney and bladder derangements. 30 days' trial $1 and guaranteed, or money back. Sold

Mr. Taft's arguments are based upon achievements; Mr. Bryan's arguments rest upon promises, most of which he now ignores as proved fallacies, such as the fifty cent dollar and public ownership.

After Mr. Bryan has brought about public ownership of railroads his next step may possibly be to enforce the same principle in the case of airships.

Under Mr. Bryan's anti-trust policy no interstate orator would be allowed to produce more than 50 per cent. of the total output of friezed rhetoric. Think how that arbitrary rule would hurt in certain quarters?

Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, has caused deep displeasure among the Bryanites by announcing that he will take the stump for Taft. For some unknown reason they supposed that he would turn traitor to his party.

That the public mind is not all taken up with politics the recent Irrigation Convention and the Deep Water Ways Convention conclusively witness. The two great projects, for the furtherance of which these meetings have been held, will probably receive a great impetus as the result of the deliberations and plans suggested.

The position of the Democratic party is that of an objector, a "kicker," if you please. It kicks on everything, even on Republican prosperity. But then that is its inherited instinct from its party emblem. For instance a Georgia mule has kicked a railway train off the track. Thus does the emblem of Democracy illustrate its opposition to progress.

The scathing criticism, bristling with strong adjectives of fashionable society, attributed to Ethel Barrymore, the noted actress, is probably no worse than it deserves. Of course not all that move in that class are stupid and bad. There are some notable exceptions of both men and women using their wealth, time and influence for the good of their fellows. But that Miss Barrymore's description accurately applies to "society" as a whole there is abundant evidence to show. That which gives her opinion special note is the fact that she is one of a class supposed to be unusually conversant with the social atmosphere of Pittsburgh, New York and Newport. We fear that the gilded, inane and surfeited men and cold, selfish and frivolous women of the fashionable world will hereafter have no welcoming smile for the popular actress.

The instructions from the Democratic State headquarters to the local "bosses" everywhere in the State is to make a campaign on Republican extravagance and appeal to the "taxpayer," with a view to make him believe that he is being overburdened. A strenuous, but unsuccessful effort on this line is being made in Rush county to carry out these instructions. Headlines throw out insinuations but that is as far as they can go. The same tactics are being pursued in other parts of the State. In Henry county there is a parallel case, and the following from the New Castle Courier covers the case in this county exactly:

"The esteemed Democrat is hammering away on county taxes and expenses just as it has in past campaigns and with as little apparent effect. If its figures and comparisons and alleged arguments were not so transparent and its purpose so well understood, its fussiness might command attention and not excite derision. It is unfortunate that the esteemed Democrat has not been able to make even a dent in public opinion with all of its hard work. If it will try to console itself with the idea that its arguments remain unanswered because unanswerable, and not dwell on the reason why—which is that there is nothing worth answering, it may be happy yet."

Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan have both defined their attitude on the tariff question far more clearly than it is disclosed in their respective platforms. Both parties are pledged to tariff revision as soon as it can be undertaken, but there is this difference, that whereas the Republican platform favors the calling of a special session for that purpose immediately after the inauguration of the next President, the Democratic platform makes no specification whatever as to the time when the work shall begin.

Both candidates, however, have frankly indicated their views as to the lines along which tariff reform should be carried. Mr. Bryan has declared for a tariff for revenue only, thus proclaiming his allegiance to the underlying principle of free trade which he helped to fasten upon American industry in the Wilson-Gorman tariff of 1894.

Mr. Taft's position is exactly the reverse. He is earnestly in favor of tariff revision, but he insists that it should be such as shall preserve and equalize the operation of the protective instead of destroying it.

The tariff issue in the present campaign has thus been defined beyond all possibility of misunderstanding by the opposing candidates themselves. One need not go to the Democratic platform to learn where Mr. Bryan stands, nor to the Republican platform to find where Mr. Taft stands. It is a straight, clear issue of Free Trade versus Protection. Mr. Bryan is pledged to destroy the protective system, while Mr. Taft is pledged to maintain it.

INTERESTING LIST OF BIBLE QUESTIONS

Pertinent to the Study of May Donnan Literary Class.

Mrs. May Donnan, who is conducting a literary class here this season which has taken up the study of the Bible, had the following questions pertinent to the season's study in last Sunday's Indianapolis Star and will give the answers next Sunday:

Who was the first archer mentioned in the Bible?
In whose funeral procession was the first record of horses?
Who is the first person on record who wept?
Who found out a man's nationality by giving him a test in pronunciation?
Who was famous for his fast driving?
Who was called "a mighty hunter before the Lord"?

TRI-COUNTY RALLY AND AN OX ROAST

Will be Held by Rush, Decatur and Franklin Counties at Grove near Clarksburg.

The ox roast to be held in Hamilton's Grove, near Clarksburg, Wednesday, October 21, promises to be an event that will arouse the enthusiasm of old time politics. It will be a joint meeting of Rush, Decatur and Franklin counties.

The speakers selected for the occasion are Hon. F. B. Posey of Evansville, and Thomas E. Davidson. Besides the political interest in the meeting it will be a gathering of old citizens who will meet to talk over the political outlook, and most of the pointers given out will indicate the true direction of the wind—and straws are ever good indicators.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

PETRIFIED CAT.

(Columbus Republican.)
While excavating for a new cement floor at the Newby & Burnett implement house, the workmen unearthed a cat, which has doubtless been having a rocky time of it, for the remains of the feline were petrified. After the stony carcass had been duly examined and discussed, it was buried with ceremonies befitting its extreme age.

TALKED TO THE SNAKES.

(Shelbyville News.)
The frightful experience of a St. Paul man chased by a blue racer, the story emanating from an unknown source and denounced as a vicious and malicious misrepresentation of facts by St. Paul people, has been caught by the winds of journalism and wafted back to us in this form from the Indianapolis Star:
"One of the most terrible snakes in the world is the blue racer. The common expression, 'a blue streak,' was coined after an observance of one of these creatures in motion. Martin Graham over at Shelbyville can tell you all about it.

"Martin was crossing a field near the St. Paul stone quarries with a bag of nuts over his shoulder. He heard a noise behind, and turning saw a monster snake after him in full cry. Most of the creature had passed the fence, although there was still some snake back in the alfalfa field from which it had come.

"He put the bag of nuts down and stood his ground. Some say he did not run because he was too scared but there is nothing in that story. He stood his ground, and when the snake came up with him he 'joshed' it. There is nothing gets a wild animal like that. Try it on a bear some time. Every time the snake got ready to strike Martin made some sarcastic remark about sea serpents he had seen. After a while he caught it by the tail and with a back hand swing jerked its head off. Nothing, when you know how.

"When the blue racer was dead it measured four inches, eleven and one half feet. There is no telling how long it was alive."

NO MORE STUFFED OYSTERS ON SALE

State Food Inspector Says "No" and Means What he Says All the While.

HAD BEEN ON MARKET BEFORE

In the future the man who goes forth in Indiana to buy shucked oysters will not get fattened oysters. At least he will not get fattened oysters if it lies within the power of H. E. Barnard, State Food and Drug Commissioner, to prevent it. Mr. Barnard declares that he will take steps immediately to prevent any dealer from putting ice or water in shucked oysters. In the past ice has been put in oysters to cool them and water has sometimes been put in them to make them plump.

"When a man buys oysters," said Mr. Barnard, "he should get oysters, and not water or melted ice."

THE YOUNG MAN'S BUSINESS

WE WANT IT BECAUSE WE ARE EQUIPPED FOR IT.

It is not an easy task to sell to young men in this community. They are well informed as to style, critical as to fit, and demand the best. But we are "it" on young men's clothing when it comes to styles, patterns, value and assortment!

Our Suits for young Men are not cut over men's patterns and then "scaled." They are drafted by special designers, who apply themselves exclusively to the study of the young man's physical development, his tastes and fancies, hence OUR SUITS for young men are full of snap and ginger.

MOSCOW LAD IS TOUTED A COMER

Earl Halterman, the Ball Pitcher, May Land in Fast Company Next Season.

MADE GOOD RECORD THIS YEAR

Is a Natural Ball Player—Can Hit, Run and Play His Position—Has Speed to Burn.

Is Earl Halterman, the Moscow phenom, who has been burning his fame in the K. I. O. League trail, this season, by his splendid work in the box for the Connersville Hoosiers, ripe for a major league? Halterman has gone against some pretty stiff teams in the Krebs, Shamrocks, Dayton Shilohs and Middletown this year and on every occasion he has given an excellent account of himself.

He has never flinched under fire and this fact alone stamps him as a flogger possessed of nerve, grit and cool judgment. The majority of the young players who have a good arm generally need several years of seasoning before they are able to make good in a big league. Halterman, however, looks like a youngster who didn't know the meaning of stage fright. In his first appearance when he relieved Dix from a trying situation he displayed remarkable nerve, closing the inning without a run being scored. "Windy" Morgan, his catcher, is of the belief that Halterman is ready to advance one or two more notches within the next two years, while other players share the same opinion. Manager LaRue and the Connersville fans would regret to have Halterman leave, but there is none who would care to stand in the way of his progress if the opportunity offers. LaRue is going ahead making arrangements for next year with the hope of again having Halterman for his flogger. In addition to being a good flogger, Halterman can rap the ball and run like a deer.

FAMOUS BAND WILL PLAY HERE

Victor and His Venetian Musicians Will Give Matinee Concert Here October 29.

BROUGHT BY HIGH SCHOOL

Victor and his Venetian band will appear at the Grand theater for a matinee concert on Thursday afternoon, October 29, at 3 o'clock. They will be brought here by the Senior class of the Rushville high school. The band is one of national repute and never fails to draw big audiences wherever they go. It was only due to the fact that the band could make this stop without breaking in on their regular schedule that the class was able to finance the proposition of bringing the band here.

THE MAIN QUESTION

With some people is whether Bryan or Taft is elected and others whether Jim Watson or Tom Marshall carries the state, and still others whether the Cubs or Tigers win the World's Championship of the base ball world.

But the Main Question with all of us is where to get that shoe we want to wear this winter. We will tell you to come here for we have the best line of good winter shoes we ever had. Come and let us show you, whether you live in Missouri or any other state. For Men we have high and regular cut in Tan and Black. The high cuts range in price from $2.50 to $6.00 the pair and every pair is guaranteed to be worth even more than we ask for it. The regular cuts run from $1.50 to $5.00 the pair.

We have for the Women, Misses and Children the best line of shoes that is in the city. Take a look at the new Directoire Boot made of tan Willow Calf, 12 inches in height, blucher lace, brass eyelets, and a large strap and brass buckle at the top. Something swell it is and the price is only $4.00. Also Patent Colt and Gun Metal in the high cuts. Wine, Tan, Black and Oxblood in the latest street boots price $3.50 a pair.

Bring that boy in, let us put a shoe on him and after he wears it, if you say it is not the best shoe he ever had for the money it won't cost you one cent.

Give us a trial and we will convince you of the truth of our assertions.

Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

Fortunately for my peace of mind we didn't stop very long in that fierce street, but cut across again and came out in Fifth avenue, of which one seems to be born knowing a little more than of other streets in America. Just as almost every one in English novels lives in Park lane, so all the New Yorkers you read of live in Fifth avenue, and I should have been disappointed if Mrs. Ess Kay hadn't, because in that case I should eventually have to go home without studying home life in the States from the right standpoint.

At first I didn't see where the grand houses I'd heard of kept themselves for everywhere were smart shops and public buildings and—so close now that we could put down our sunshades—mountainous skyscrapers. The shops were beautiful, though Mrs. Ess Kay apologized for them by saying that it was out of season, and I'd never seen so much brilliance of color or variety in a street. I tried to search for the cause of this effect, but I couldn't define it. Perhaps it was partly the clearness of the atmosphere, but there was a great deal more than that. Everything you passed seemed to be pink or pale green or gold or ivory white or ultramarine blue, yet when you really thought it out detail by detail it wasn't. And, though I'd considered the skyscrapers awful from a distance, spinning along at their feet I couldn't deny them a fantastic kind of attractiveness.

At our rate of speed I hadn't to wait many minutes for the grand Fifth avenue houses, and oh, poor London—poor, dear London! I wanted to fly back and tear down Buckingham palace.

Mrs. Ess Kay had always talked about her "New York home," which made it sound rather small and modest, so I was surprised when we stopped before a huge, square pile, built of rich looking, rough brown stones, so nearly the color of a Christ mas plum pudding that it made me hungrier than ever to look at it. The house is trimmed with three wide bands of carving, made of the same kind of stone, and there are carved bronze railings and lamps on the porch, and the front door is carved, too, like the door of a cathedral.

We were let into a vestibule, all colored mosaic and tiles, and that opened into a big, square, glassed over garden, with a great marble fountain playing in the middle. I never saw such a wonderful place in my life, but until I got used to it, I couldn't help feeling that it was more like a splendid foreign hotel than a mere house. The garden isn't a real garden when you come to examine it, for it's paved with rare stones of different colors, like the jewels in Aladdin's cave, but all around the fountain beautiful flowers are growing and pink and white water lilies float in the marble basin. There are orange trees in pots, and a forest of tall palms, all of which are reflected and repeated over and over again in the mirrors of which the walls are made, and on the little tables standing about here and there among groups of inlaid chairs are bowls overflowing with roses. The roof is a skylight, over which creepers have been trained, so that the light which filters through is a lovely green. No doors are visible at first glance, but when you are initiated, all you have to do is to walk up to the mirror wall, find a gold button, press it and a door opens into a room as marvelous as the fountain court, around which, it seems, all the rest of the house is built.

"We'll have something to drink here," said Mrs. Ess Kay, "before we take off our things." So we all sat down, among the palms and orange blossoms, and a delicious sense of peace after storm stole over us with the coolness and the green dusk and the perfume of flowers.

I supposed that "something to drink" at this time of day meant tea, but almost immediately a footman came through the glass wall, carrying a tray with nothing on it except tall tumblers. There were straws sticking out of the tumblers, and as the man moved I could hear a faint tinkle of ice.

For a minute I was bitterly disappointed, because the thought of tea

Almost immediately a footman came, had supported me for hours. But when I tasted the stuff in my glass I wasn't disappointed any longer. It had two or three strawberries, some bits of pineapple, and a white grape bobbing about on top, and it was full of chopped ice. I don't know what it was, for nobody mentioned its name, and I was ashamed to ask, lest it might seem too ignorant; but it was good, and tasted as if it might have a little wine in it, mixed with fizzy water and other things. When I had drunk mine, I felt a different girl; quite merry and so friendly toward Mrs. Ess Kay. I had never thought her such a nice woman. I laughed at almost everything that she and Sally said, and I said some rather funny things myself. Still, I'm not sure that as a regular thing I wouldn't rather have tea.

We sat resting for some time, though I wasn't tired at all now. I could have run a mile, but suddenly I felt a little sleepy, and I was glad when Mrs. Ess Kay proposed to go to our rooms. Leaving the fountain court we came into a hall, hung with tapestry, and from it a wide stairway led us up to a gallery, lighted from the top, which runs all round the house, with the doors of the bedrooms opening off from it.

Mine is so gorgeous that I haven't known one thoroughly comfy moment in it since I came, except at night when I'm asleep.

One would think, as Battlemead is ranked among the finest old Tudor places in England, and people come on Thursdays and give shillings to see it (a very good thing for us, though it's extremely inconvenient, as it pays for all the gardens and all the servants' wages) that it would be grander than quite a new house, in a country like America. But Battlemead, even in its palmiest days, must have been shabby before Mrs. Ess Kay's "home" in New York.

Our grandest bedroom, the one where Queen Elizabeth slept, is quite a dull old hole compared to Mrs. Ess Kay's splendid room. Mine, at home, has all the furniture covered with faded chintz, and the curtains are made of plain white dimity. But I love the deep window seats where I can curl up among cushions, with a catnap of roses veiling the picture of the terrace with its ivy covered stone balustrade, the sundial, the two white peacocks, and far away, the park with a blue mist among the trees. And I haven't learned yet to love my beautiful room at Mrs. Ess Kay's, though I admire it immensely—admire to the verge of awe.

It's pink and white and silver. The carpet is pink and feels like moss, as you step. The wall is covered with pink and silver brocade, except where there are panels with Watteau-like pictures. The curtains are foamy lace, with the pink and silver brocade falling over them. The furniture looks as if it were made of ivory; there's a mirror in three parts, reaching from the floor half way to the ceiling, so that you see yourself in front and two profiles, like astral bodies, things which I've always wanted to cultivate, as they would be so nice for trying on dresses, or making calls on dull people. On the dressing table is another mirror, an oval one, framed with pink roses, each of which has an electric light hidden in its heart, and the bedspread is of pink and silver brocade to match the hangings, with a large, hard roll like an ossified bolster, at the top.

I believe it's that bed more than anything else which makes me feel that it's always Sunday in my room at Mrs. Ess Kay's. I'm used to old fashioned, ruffy pillows and a plain white cover let smelling of lavender, on which I can flop down whenever I like, to read a novel or to have a nice little "weep." But there's no flopping on this gorgeous pink and silver expanse, and it's small consolation to know that no queen of England ever had one as handsome.

Mrs. Ess Kay and Sally escorted me to my room when I came to it first. After I'd admired everything enough to satisfy them, I was taken to see the bathroom adjoining, and then a kind of wardrobe room opening out of that. I was almost prostrated by the magnificence of both, which pleased Mrs. Ess Kay very much, and in the grand wardrobe room, smelling deliciously, though faintly, of cedar, my poor boxes—already arrived—looked mean and insignificant. Mrs. Ess Kay's and Sally's huge "Innovations" would have been much more appropriate than my dress baskets, which had been squashed into lopsided deformity under heavier things in the hold.

The Perfect Corset for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduse No. 770 for large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides, also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $5.00.

New W. B. Reduse No. 772 for large short women, is the same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $5.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the New W. B. "Hip-subduing" models from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

Are YOU Being "Hunted"

One of today's Daily Republican Want Ads may be hunting you—ransacking the city for you.

It may be a message for you of urgent personal importance—one that, when you get it, and heed it, may change the immediate currents of your activities, of your interests; may even place around and about you new environments, new associates; may give you an entirely new start in a business way.

Isn't worth while to try to find out whether this may not be true, today, tomorrow, or very soon?

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CUERD

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Winter-green Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skill of the best physicians for so many years at last seems to be curable—and curable with great ease.

Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itch, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of winter-green, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.

The Rev. Lewis Steeley of Weatherly, Pa., writes:

"Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 3½ bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child which is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen too often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent; we have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children.

APPEAL TO LOYAL REPUBLICANS

To Middle West and Rocky Mountain States Republicans.

You want Mr. Taft and Mr. Sherman elected and they cannot be elected unless the Republican National Committee has sufficient money to pay the legitimate expenses of the campaign. It costs money to perfect an organization. It requires money to pay for printing, postage, salaries or stenographers and clerks at headquarters, traveling expenses of speakers and numerous other details that go to make the campaign end successfully. Congress, as you know, has passed a law making it unlawful for us to solicit money from corporations. We must depend upon the contributions of individual voters. If every Republican in this Western Division would contribute one dollar to the campaign fund, we will be able to do all the things that the voters want done; we will be able to elect Taft and Sherman. Will you help? If so, please send one dollar to the chairman of your State Finance Committee, whose name appears in the list following, or send it direct to me and you will receive the official receipt of the Republican National Committee.

FRED W. UPHAM,
Assistant Treasurer.

Contributions may be sent by check or money order to any of the following named chairmen of the various State finance committees:

Colorado, Whitney Newton, Denver.
Idaho, Frank F. Johnson, Wallace.
Illinois, Col. Frederick H. Smith, Peoria.

Iowa, Hon. Lafayette Young, Des Moines.

Kansas, Frank E. Grimes, Topeka.
Michigan, John N. Bagley, Detroit.
Missouri, O. L. Whitelaw, 409 North Second street, St. Louis.

Montana, Thomas A. Marlow, Helena.
Nebraska, John C. Wharton, New York Life building, Omaha.

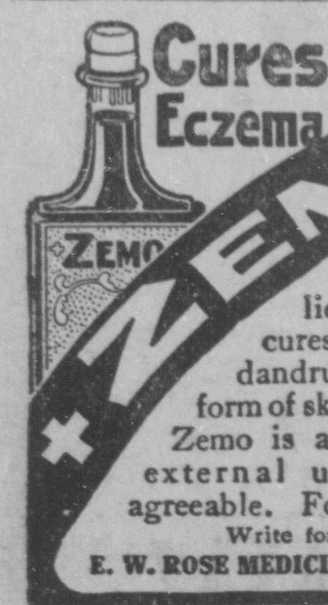

New Mexico, J. W. Reynolds, Santa Fe.

North Dakota, James A. Buchanan, Buchanan.

INDIANA POLITICS

ROBERT G. TUCKER.

Indianapolis, Oct. 13.—For the purpose of determining on a policy for the remainder of the campaign, the Republican state and executive committee and state ticket nominees will meet here this afternoon with Chairman Goodrich. Reports will be received from the party leaders who have not met since the legislature enacted the county local option law. Chairman Goodrich and his associates say they are getting information of a very encouraging nature from practically all of the counties where there are no large cities, but it is admitted that there is trouble in the large centers. James E. Watson, Republican nominee for governor, made his first speech of the campaign here yesterday when he addressed a large meeting of laborers at the Brown-Ketcham iron works at Haughville. He eulogized the Republican party and defended his own labor record. He will speak here again Friday. Chairman Hayes of the speakers' bureau of the Republican state committee is now arranging Taft's Indiana itinerary. Taft will speak here on the night of Oct. 23. His other night meetings probably will be at Evansville or Terre Haute, and Hammond. John L. Griffiths, consul general to Liverpool, whose silver-tongued speeches won from President Roosevelt his position in the consular service, returned to Indiana today to remain until after the election. His first speech will be made at Winchester Wednesday night. On Thursday night he speaks at Elwood; Friday, Vincennes; Saturday, Rockville and Newburgh. A mass meeting is being arranged for him here for next Monday night.

Gilbert Hendren of the speakers' bureau of the Democratic state committee has been notified that William Jennings Bryan will spend Oct. 20 in Indiana. Bryan will speak at Chicago the night before and will start on a special train from there to cross Indiana on an Eastern trip. He will spend another day in Indiana on Oct. 30, as he returns home for the close of the campaign in the East. Within the next two or three days Chairman Hendren will go to Chicago to arrange for the coming of a number of speakers of national reputation to help round up the voters in Indiana. He said today that in addition to Bryan the committee will have at its disposal some of the most noted men in the country. Hendren has not attempted to plan Bryan's itinerary, but the chances are that it will be confined to the cities in the extreme northern portion of the state and that an effort will be made to swing through central Indiana on the 30th. Chairman Hendren said to day that John W. Kern, vice presidential nominee, will make a few speeches in Indiana. He will close the campaign for the Democrats here on the night of Oct. 30. On the following night he will close the campaign at Evansville. Kern, who had been resting here since Saturday, left yesterday on an Eastern trip. He will speak at Elizabethtown, N. J., Wednesday afternoon. Kern is in fairly good shape physically, but he is leaving at home his eight-year-old son, John Worth Kern, Jr., suffering from infantile paralysis. The boy's condition is serious. His speech has not been affected, but he cannot move. Chairman Hendren has about completed the itinerary of Thomas R. Marshall, nominee for governor, for the remainder of the campaign. He will speak at Fort Wayne on Saturday night before the election and at Columbia City, his own home, the night before.

The Anti-Saloon League has issued a public appeal to its members urging them not to attempt to hold any county local option elections under the new law while the campaign is in progress. The league officials say that should the party which enacted the law suffer a reverse at the polls that there will be some of its members in every community who will not be in any humor to aid in a special election. Owing to the partisan feeling now existing over the law the league leaders believe that it is inadvisable to attempt to hold special elections until after the general election. That the brewers will make an effort to secure the repeal of the county local option law is shown by the fact that they are beginning a bill-post campaign with a view to prejudicing public opinion against the county local option statute. The bills appeared on boards in Indianapolis yesterday.

Two Negroes Lynched.
Lulu, Miss., Oct. 13.—Jim and Frank Davis, negroes, charged with having shot and probably fatally wounded John C. Kendall, a conductor of the Illinois Central railroad, were taken from the jail here by a mob and hanged. The shooting of Kendall occurred aboard a passenger train near here when he attempted to quiet the negroes, who had been drinking.

COUNTRY NEEDS A REPUBLICAN CONGRESS.

President Roosevelt Points Out Importance of Electing Legislators to Support Taft.

President Roosevelt, in a letter to William B. McKinley, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, appeals to disinterested citizens to join with the National Republican Committee and the Congressional Committee in a movement to elect William H. Taft as President and a Republican Congress to support him, saying, in part:

"It is urgently necessary, from the standpoint of the public interest, to elect Mr. Taft, and a Republican Congress which will support him; and they seek election on a platform which specifically pledges the party, alike in its executive and legislative branches, to continue and develop the policies which have been not merely introduced, but acted upon during these seven years. These policies can be successfully carried through only by the hearty co-operation of the President and the Congress in both its branches, and it is therefore peculiarly important that there should obtain such harmony between them. To fail to elect Mr. Taft would be a calamity to the country; and it would be folly, while electing him, yet at the same time to elect a Congress hostile to him, a Congress which under the influence of partisan leadership would be certain to thwart and baffle him on every possible occasion. To elect Mr. Taft, and at the same time to elect a Congress pledged to support him, is the only way in which to perpetuate the policy of the government as now carried on. I feel that all the aid that can be given to this policy by every good citizen should be given; for this is far more than a merely partisan matter."

A Belated Trial.

New York, Oct. 13.—George R. Scroggum and Charles Stirling, who with Charles F. Carrington were indicted in February of last year for forgery and conspiracy in connection with the election of trustees and directors of the New York Life Insurance company, will be put on trial in the court of general sessions next Friday.

HOW TO CURE SKIN DISEASES.

Eczema, pimples, dandruff and itching skin diseases are of local origin and are caused by germs. In order to cure these diseases the germs and their poisons must be driven to the surface of the skin and destroyed. Salves and greasy lotions may give temporary relief, but they do not destroy the germs that cause the disease. A St. Louis chemist has discovered a clean vegetable liquid remedy that will draw the germs and their poisons to the surface of the skin and destroy them, leaving a nice, clear, healthy skin. This remedy is known as Zemo, and by its many remarkable cures has attracted the attention of the leading scientists and skin specialists of this country and Europe.

Zemo has been given the most cordial reception by the public of any similar remedy ever produced, and it is recognized as an honest medicine that makes honest cures.

Zemo is for sale everywhere. You can obtain a trial package free by writing to the E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo. Mr. F. E. Wolcott has secured the agency for Zemo in Rushville, and will gladly show you proof of some of the wonderful cures made by this remarkable remedy.

Historic Disaster on Ohio River Recalled.

TWO BIG STEAMERS BURNED

Reappearance of Long Submerged Sandbars Brings to Light Near Vevay Relics of One of the Most Appalling Disasters in the History of Ohio River Navigation—the Wreck of the Good Steamers United States and America, Burned to the Water's Edge, Many Passengers Perishing in the Flames.

Vevay, Ind., Oct. 13.—Navigation is closed between Louisville and Cincinnati because of low water in the Ohio river, the lowest in twenty years. Steamer traffic between Louisville and points south is also cut off. Sandbars have reappeared, long submerged, and with them are exposed traces of disasters to river traffic in the past. Probably the most notable was the destruction of two fine steamers—the America and the United States—plying between Louisville and Cincinnati, in December, 1868. Great loss of life marked this disaster. The America left the wharf at Louisville on the evening of December 4, 1868, loaded with passengers, who went to their berths early. She also carried a large quantity of coal oil on the lower deck. The United States pulled out from Cincinnati about the same hour.

The night was cold and dark, and the pilots of the steamers had difficulty in finding the channel. Near Peak's Landing, in Switzerland county, they came in sight of each other, and the pilots barely had time to sound distress signals before there was a terrific crash; the impact crushing in the steamers' bows. Barrels of oil burst and the fluid spread over the deck and was ignited by an overturned lamp. Flames enveloped both steamers as they floated helplessly.

Many passengers leaped overboard and sank. Others sought life preservers or clung to broken timbers, but a large number were burned to death before they could make any effort at escape. Farmers living close to the shore hurried to the rescue, and they succeeded in saving a number of persons, some of whom had been seriously burned.

Both steamers burned to the water's edge before the blackened hulls sank from view. It is estimated that more than 200 people perished by fire or drowning. Several of the rescued were so badly burned that they died.

For many years following the disaster pieces of jewelry and other souvenirs were recovered during low water, and only recently a fisherman found a woman's watch—a mute reminder of that terrible night.

The destruction of these steamers proved to be the greatest disaster ever recorded on the Ohio river, and it was only exceeded in loss of life when the Sultana, a few years before, exploded her boilers and sank in the depths of the Mississippi river soon after leaving Memphis, Tenn. The Sultana was bearing nearly 2,000 passengers, most of them soldiers who were returning to their homes in the North at the close of the war.

MR. ESCHBACH EXPLAINS

Shows That Alleged Shortage in Treasurer's Books Does Not Exist.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 13.—An alleged shortage of $11,972.16 in the treasury of Kosciusko county has been cleared up by State Representative Jesse E. Eschbach of Warsaw, formerly of Silver Lake, who was a deputy in the treasurer's office in 1905.

Mr. Eschbach, under oath, has testified that the alleged discrepancy as found on a ledger in the treasurer's office, and which alleged shortage has been made a campaign issue, was merely a memorandum made by Mr. Eschbach, showing the amount of warrants coming from the county auditor's office on the ditch account, and which had been paid out by County Treasurer James J. Babcock in 1905, and that the figures in the ledger really meant nothing as far as records of the county were concerned.

Another alleged shortage of $2,500 in the treasurer's office has been cleared up by former Auditor Sharp, who, under oath, testified that the purported discrepancy was a transposition of the figures "2" and "5" in making $2,572 read $5,272.

Wife Stood by Him.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 13.—Cleve Snyder, who cut his wife's throat last August in a fit of rage because the woman had left him, was found guilty of assault with intent to kill, by a circuit court jury, and must serve a prison sentence of two to fourteen years. His defense was temporary insanity. His wife, the injured woman, who stood by him at the trial and aided the defense, broke down when the verdict was read and cried hysterically.

A Domestic Entanglement.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 13.—Five minutes after Albert E. Tucker of Akron, Ind., was divorced he was united in marriage to Lulu E. Tucker, his own son's divorced wife.
